Sing to the Lord a new-made song, Who wondrous things has Sing to the Lord a new-made song, Who wondrous things has Sing to the Lord a new-made song, Who wondrous things has Sing to the Lord a new-made song, Who wondrous things has done: With his right hand and holy arm The conquest he has won.

done: With his right hand and holy arm The conquest he has won.
done: With his right hand and holy arm The conquest he has won.
done: With his right hand and holy arm The conquest he has won.

The Lord has through th'astonish'd world
Display'd his saving might,
And made his righteous acts appear
In all the heathen's sight.

Of Israel's house his love and truth
Have ever mindful been:
Wide earth's remotest parts the pow'r
Of Israel's God have seen.

Let therefore earth's inhabitants
Their cheerful voices raise;
And all with universal joy
Resound their maker's praise.

Notes: The alto and tenor parts are printed in the alto and tenor clefs respectively in the source. The first verse of the text is underlaid in the source, where the other three verses given here are printed after the music. The crotchet E in the soprano part on beat 1 of bar 6 and the corresponding note in the right hand of the keyboard accompaniment are both printed as small crotchet grace notes followed by full-sized minims in the source, and have been written out editorially.
